

Chemistry 2720 Fall 2005 Quiz 8 Solution

The ground-state electronic configuration of neon is $1s^2 2s^2 2p^6$. In a photoelectron spectrum, we get a line for each orbital (assuming the ionizing radiation is sufficiently energetic). Thus, we would expect to see three lines in the spectrum.